Father Tom's Letter

Dear Friends,

I came across these words of Father John Kavanaugh, SJ, reflecting on this Sundays gospel.

"Do you love me?"

Pause a moment. There is something great stirring here. Have you or I ever uttered those words to another? "Do you love me?" Most of us, once beyond childhood, are terrified at the thought of asking such a question....

I could think of scores of questions Christ might have put to Peter. Do you promise never to betray me again? Will you finally be more modest in your claims? Do you now, at long last, after having denied me, amend your life? Your lofty professions of faith? Now, do you see why I had to wash your feet?

But none of this. This God made flesh is interested in one thing, the heart and face of the one before him. The gift of a person, even tarnished, so like unto glory it was the only image of God that God allowed. The human "yes." The affirmation, uttered in all its hurt and frailty....

Jesus said only, "Do you love me?"

We are very happy to welcome Our Communion II Children receiving the Eucharist for the first time on May 11th and May 18th, to the Lords table. Many thanks to the Catechists and Miss Charlotte who have worked to ready the children for this great day of celebration with and for their families. Let's pray for these young ones and their families and welcome them enthusiastically as they join us at God's table.

All those involved in liturgical ministries are invited to join in an hour of reflection led by Sister Theresita on Monday, May 6th at 10:00am in the Bethany Center or Wednesday, May 8th at 7pm in the Church. All members of the Choir, Cantors, Ushers, Readers, Extraordinary Ministers, and Adult Servers are invited. We thankyou for your ministry and pray for you with thankful hearts.

And finally...

No longer relishing my reputation as a technophobe, I bought an iPhone and peppered the young salesman with a ton of questions.

"Please excuse my ignorance", I said. "I'm from the Smith - Corona generation."He had no idea what I was talking about, so I asked, "Do you know what a Smith- Corona is?"

He replied tentatively, "a drink?"

Peace.

Father Tom

Liturgical Ministers Reflection Time Monday, May 6th 9:15am mass Or Wednesday, May 8th at 7pm

Lectors, Eucharistic Ministers, Music Ministers, Ushers

Come and be energized by the gifts of the Spirit as you take the time to reflect on your ministry and the joy it brings to you and others.

We will gather for an hour Monday May 6th after the 9:15am mass in the Bethany Center. Another session will be held on Wednesday May 8th at 7 PM in the Church. I look forward to sharing some time with you and hopefully we can look at the Energies of the Spirit and be filled.

Wishing you Easter Joy,

Sister Theresita.

CATHOLIC ELEMENTARY SCHOOLS COLLECTION 2019 THIS WEEKEND: MAY 4TH & 5TH

Half of the money collected in parishes with schools, and parishes that support regional schools, stays with the school, and the other half is sent to the Diocese and is given to Tomorrow's Hope Foundation for scholarships.

The money from the non-school parishes is sent to the Diocese and goes for Tomorrow's Hope scholarships which assist many students in need with tuition assistance.

Kindly be as generous as allowed in support of Catholic Elementary Schools. Thank you

All Are Invited to Hospitality Sunday THIS WEEKEND; Sunday May 5th, 2019

Hosted by the Knights of Columbus

After the 8am and 9am masses

All are welcome to share faith and friendship with your fellow Parishioners

THE MEN'S FORUM

AT THE CHURCH OF SAINTS PHILIP & JAMES

Monday, May 6, 2019

Speaker: Br. Richard Contino, OSF, Franciscan Brothers of Brooklyn, NY Topic: "Living Faithfully in an Unfaithful Age"

How do we as men of the Catholic Church live faithful Gospel lives at a time of widespread indifference to God and hostility to the Church? Br. Richard, a religious educator, spiritual director and author, will show us how we can respond to Christ's call and be bold in faith, courageous in witness, and authentic in living. Because each one of us has been chosen by Christ and gifted with grace, we who are ordinary men are challenged to express extraordinary faith to a skeptical world. Living faithfully means saying no to the indifference and unfaithfulness in our society but yes to an encounter with Christ, especially during this Easter Season and beyond. Please join us and let Br. Richard lead you in this prayer reflection Monday night.

LOCATION: Main Church: 359 Clinton Avenue, Saint James, NY
6:30 PM: Adoration • 7:30 PM: Speaker Talk • 8:30 PM: Coffee & Cake

With Gratitude to Deacon Ken Maher

Thank you for your devoted service and commitment to the diaconate.

You have been a jouful witness to all of Gods love and grace

God bless you on your 31st Anniversary May 7th, 2019

From Peace & Justice Ministry

In his encyclical "Laudato si" Pope Francis calls for a change in lifestyle, indeed a conversion: "Climate change is a global problem with grave implications, probably the principal challenge facing Humanity in our day. Its worst impact will be felt in the coming decades, especially by developing countries." (§ 25) - "Humanity is called to a change of Lifestyle, of production and consumption, in order to combat this threat or at least to mitigate the effects of human actions that produce or aggravate it."

Music Ministry

Happy May!!!

May is the month of Mary. I thought it would be nice, this year, to include one Mary hymn at each weekend Mass.

> This weekend we will sing, as our Presentation Hymn, On This Day O Beautiful Mother # 697 in the Music Issue.

For the next 3 weekends I will put a Mary hymn in different parts of the Mass. Pray to our Blessed Mother as we sing these beautiful hymns.

Special Thank you to Eleanor Gould from St. Patrick in Smithtown and our own Christine Fena Gillespie for playing the piano for our Easter overflow Masses. Your help was greatly appreciated.

Thank you to all in our music ministry for the extra singing and playing as well.

20 CATHOLIC MINISTRIES APPEAL
19 DIOCESE OF ROCKYILLE CENTRE

Supporting Dramatic Missionary Growth in Our Community

Witnessing Forgiving Loving Helping Teaching Igniting Evangelizing Teaching Igniting Evangelizing Forgiving Loving Helping Witnessing

Dear Friends:

As our parish continues to support the mission of the Catholic Ministries Appeal (CMA), I am writing today to thank you for all you have done and continue to do to make our Parish a beacon of light in our Long Island community.

The Catholic Ministries Appeal recognizes the sacredness and dignity of every human person. Funds from the CMA support diocesan respect life, hospital and prison ministries. Funds from the CMA support educational efforts at all different levels throughout Long Island. The CMA helps form priests, volunteers, lay ministers, and deacons who labor on a daily basis on behalf of the gospel. All those ministries, activities and efforts that reach beyond our parish boundaries are aided and assisted by the Catholic Ministries Appeal. Equally important, 100% of every dollar raised is restricted to the ministries and parishes.

Our parishes have outreach programs, but on our own we couldn't provide affordable housing to low income seniors or people with disabilities. In past and present, our parish has benefited from the presence and work of many wonderful seminarians and priests. However, as a single parish, we could never have educated and trained them adequately. But together, as a diocese, we have an exceptional formation program.

The Catholic Ministries Appeal is a welcome reminder that as the Church, the Body of Christ, we are part of something much larger than ourselves as a single parish; with your support, we are touching the lives of so many people, and delivering hope and care where needed most.

Please join me in supporting this year's Catholic Ministries Appeal. Your gift – large or small –is most welcome, much needed and very much appreciated.

Sincerely yours in Christ.

Father Tom

All are invited to join together to celebrate May, the month of the rosary. We will again gather to say the rosary and honor our blessed mother on the Feast of Our Lady of Fatima Monday May 13th.

Weather permitting, we will gather in front of Our Lady of Lourdes grotto by the rectory office building after the 7:30AM mass. If the weather does not cooperate, we will meet in the main church in front of the Blessed Mother's statue to the left of the main altar.

Hope to see you all there.

We need Our Lady's intercession every day. So if you cannot join us on the 13th. please feel free to pray with one of the rosary groups who meet after the 7:30AM mass Mon thru. Fri in the main church, or the group who meet before and after the 9:15 mass Mon thru Sat. in the Prayer Room, or the group who meet at the Planned Parenthood Clinic on Maple Ave. Wed. and Sat mornings 7AM to 10AM come anytime these mornings to pray peacefully with those who defend life.

Religious Education Prayer for the Month of May

Hail ! Holy Queen

Haill Holy Queen, Mother of Mercy,
our life, our sweetness and our hope.
To you do we cry,
poor banished children of Eve.
To you do we send up our sighs,
mourning and weeping in this valley of tears.
Turn then, O most gracious advocate,
your eyes of mercy toward us;
and after this our exile,
show unto us the blessed fruit
of your womb, Jesus.
O clement! O loving! O sweet Virgin Mary!

Pray for us, O Holy Mother of God.

That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

God's blessings upon our
Communion II Students

We Can Know His Voice

This Week's Readings at Mass

- Acts 13:14, 43-52 Paul's and Barnabas' address to the gentiles
- ► Revelation 7:9, 14b-17 Rejoicing of the elect of every nation
- John 10:27-30 Words at the feast of the dedication of the Temple

Today's Gospel reading emphasizes that Jesus is the ultimate good shepherd. "My sheep hear my voice; I know them, and they follow me." We might wonder how we can recognize Jesus' voice as humans living in the 21st century, not sheep following a shepherd in the first century. It begins by trusting that the shepherd wants what is best for the sheep. Do we believe that God wants what is best for us? Because he does.

Jesus also said, "I have come that they may have life in abundance." God wants us to have joy, freedom, fulfillment, and love, not deprivation, emptiness, and loneliness. If we have internalized the latter message, we have been tricked into following a shepherd who is not interested in our care and protection. In that case, the first step is to ask God for a greater trust that he wants us to have life in its fullness, here and now, not just after we die.

When we do believe that Jesus loves us enough to have our very best interests at heart, we can practice listening for invitations that bring us more energy, excitement, joy, and peace. Maybe a new job offer is particularly invigorating—that is probably Jesus' voice calling us to follow. Perhaps an invitation from a friend or acquaintance leads us to a sense of greater joy or contentment than what we are currently spending our time on. That could be the voice of Jesus calling us to follow.

How did yo God?

2 Des astroshepherd who word of the Dublished of the Dubl

"My sheep hear my voice; I know them. No one can take them out of my hand."

Sheepish Question:

How could I come to know the Good Shepherd as well as he knows me?

Maybe an activity or relationship we are engaged in is contributing to depression, anxiety, self-hatred, or substance abuse. In that case, the thought of ending that activity or relationship may give us a glimpse of freedom and relief. If that is the case, perhaps it is the voice of Jesus calling us to leave that behind us. There are many ways Jesus can call to us. If we listen for and follow the invitations that lead to greater life, then we will know we are following Jesus' voice.

Questions of the Week

Share about a time when you have followed an invitation that you felt was from Jesus.

How did you know the "voice" was from God?

Describe a time when you went astray by following another shepherd who didn't care for you as a good shepherd cares for his sheep

How did you realize you were astray? How did you find your way back to God's path for you?

Spiritual Reflection by Ron Rolheiser, OMI

Beyond Mysticism

"I'm a practicing mystic!" A woman said that in one of my classes some years ago and it raised lots of eyebrows. I was teaching a class in mysticism and asked the students why the topic of mysticism interested them. Their responses varied: Some were simply intrigued with the concept; others were spiritual directors who wanted more insight into what constitutes mystical experience; and a number of others were taking the course because their faculty advisor asked them to. But one woman answered: "Because I'm a practicing mystic!"

Can someone be a practicing mystic? Yes, providing both terms, practicing and mystic, are understood properly.

What does it mean to be a mystic? In the popular mind, mysticism is most often associated with extraordinary and paranormal religious experience, namely, visions, revelations, apparitions, and the like. Sometimes in fact this is the case, as is true of some great mystics like Julian of Norwich and Theresa of Avila, but these are exceptions. That's not the norm. Normally mystical experience is ordinary; no visions, no apparitions, no ecstasies, just everyday experience – but with a difference.

Ruth Burrows, the renowned British Carmelite, defines mysticism this way: Mystical experience is being touched by God at a level deeper than words, thought, imagination, and feeling. We have a mystical experience when we know ourselves and our world with clarity, even if just for a second. That can involve something extraordinary, like a vision or apparition, but normally it doesn't. Normally a mystical experience is not a moment where an angel or some spirit appears to you or something paranormal happens to you. A mystical moment is extraordinary, but extraordinary because of its unique lucidity and clarity, extraordinary because for that moment we are extraordinarily centered, and extraordinary because in that moment we sense, beyond words and imagination, in some dark, unconscious, and inchoate way, what mystics call the indelible memory of God's kiss on our soul, the primordial memory of once having experienced perfect love inside God's womb before birth. Bernard Lonergan, using a different terminology, calls this the brand of the first principles on our soul, that is, the innate imprint of the transcendental properties of God, Oneness, Truth, Goodness, and Beauty, inside us.

We have a mystical experience when we are in touch with that part of our soul that was once touched by God, before we were born, that part of our soul that still bears, however unconsciously, the memory of that touch. Henri Nouwen calls this a dark memory of "first love", of once having been caressed by far gentler hands than we have ever met in this life.

We all have experiences of this to some degree. We all have mystical experiences, though we aren't all mystics. What's the difference between having a mystical experience and being a mystic? It's the difference between having aesthetic experiences and being an artist. All of us have deep aesthetic experiences and are at times deeply moved in our souls by beauty, but only a few persons become great artists, great composers, and great musicians, not necessarily because they have deeper experiences than the rest of us, but because they can give exceptional aesthetic expression to their experience. Aesthetic expression is always according to more or less. Hence anyone can become a practicing artist, even if not a professional one.

The same holds true for mysticism. A mystic is someone who can give meaningful expression to mystical experience, just as an artist is someone who can give proper expression to aesthetic experience. You can be a practicing mystic, akin to a practicing artist or practicing musician. Like a struggling artist, you can struggle to give meaningful, conscious expression to the deep movements you sense within your soul and, like an amateur artist, you will not be the Rembrandt or Picasso of the spiritual life, but your efforts can be immensely helpful to you in clarifying the movements within your own soul and psyche.

How, concretely, practically, might you practice being a mystic? By doing anything that helps you to more consciously get in touch with the deep movements of your soul and by doing things that help you steady and center your soul.

For example, in striving to get in touch with your soul you can be a practicing mystic by journaling, doing spiritual reading, taking spiritual direction, doing various spiritual exercises such as the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius, and by prayer of any kind. In terms of centering and steadying your soul you can be a practicing mystic by more consciously and more deliberately giving yourself over to the biblical practice of Sabbath and by doing other soul-centering things like gardening, taking long walks, listening to good music, sharing wine and conversation with family and friends, making love with your spouse, holding a baby, visiting a person who is ill, or even just taking up a hobby that healthily breaks the obsession of your daily concerns.

There are ways of being a practicing mystic, even without taking a formal class on mysticism.
